Amateur Radio Club

Recently the FCC has created a new amateur radio class license, No-Code-Technician. This class license will not require you to learn Morse code and is free. Only a 55 question test is required, and the question pool will be made available by the amateur radio club. This is your big chance to get involved with one of MSOE's most rewarding organizations! If you have any questions, please stop in at one of our weekly meetings. (Fridays at 11:00am in L-305), or call Kevin Oleniczak at x5316 or 271-1619.

Gaming Association

Do you like to play games? Have you missed your regular game partners from home? Stop by at the Gaming Association meeting Thursdays at 1PM in L-305 and set up a time to play. "We Play Anything!"

Omega Xi

The sisters of Omega Xi wish to see you at the 18th annual Brewer outing on Friday. Tickets are still available from any of our members. We would like to remind anyone interested in our organization that we will begin rushing before the year is out! Contact Leslie at x5331 for further information. We hope to do some activities with you soon! Finally we would like to wish a very happy/drunken birthday to all of our sisters who will be celebrating them over the summer break: Laura Boll, Liz Minskey, Patty Myer, Amy Tomaszewski, and Liz Vrablec. P.S. Hey, everyone, let's pray for Brandt's safe return home soon!

IEEE

Our spring activities were a success. Thanks to all of the members for their help. Come see our year-end speaker on the topic of Graduate School Thursday, May 2 at 1:00 in S-209. Everyone is welcome. It is not too late to become a member. See Dr. Chier in S-328 for applications. Midcon '91, the largest electrical engineering activity in the Midwest is happening Sept. 11-13 at the O'Hare Expo Center in Chicago. MSOE student branch will be attending on Friday, the 13th. Join us! Have a great summer; see you next fall.

Society of Women Engineers

SWE is selling Nestle-Beich candy bars for 50 cents. If you have a taste for chocolate contact any SWE member, or stop any woman carrying a box of Nestle-Beich candy bars.

Residence Halls Association
"Making What You Say About Where You Live Count"
Meetings are at 7:00pm Mondays in MLH001.

Computer Club

The Computer Club can help you with your computer problems! From Apples to Zeniths, from keyboards to hard drives, we have a member that knows it. So stop in Fridays at 11:00 in S-358 and ask you computer question.

Society of Automotive Engineering

The Society of Automotive Engineering invites interested students to our meetings held on even weeks. Meeting times are Tuesday at 12:00. Check our bulletin board outside S-262 for meeting places. New members are welcome to register for $10 per year. Recieve a subscription to Automotive Engineering or Aerospace Engineering and join the Formula or Baja teams. Get hands-on experience and learn skills in practical designing that relates to your engineering classes.
